

Dear Rising Third Grade Students and Parents,

Summer is upon us, and everyone is ready to relax and think about having fun in the sun! There are many ways to have fun...especially reading a good book! In order to get ready for the challenges of third grade, it is important to retain all those skills you learned this past year.

I have included a list of books you might enjoy reading. You may choose books from this list or other books on your reading level. Please do NOT read the following books: Mr. Popper's Penguins by Richard and Florence Atwater and Top Secret by John Reynolds Gardiner. We will read these books as a class during the school year.

Please read a total of two books. One book must be nonfiction and one should be a fiction/chapter book. Use the attached form to answer questions about the fiction/chapter book.

The reading assignment is due on the FIRST day of school. Please sign and return the bottom of this page.

Have a great summer and happy reading!

Miss Samuels

I understand my child is to read two books over the summer and complete the attached page. One book should be nonfiction and one should be a chapter book. All work is due the first day of school.
